In order to show in a small way our appreciation for his patience, guidance, and understanding in our everyday problems, we the Graduating Class of one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven dedicate this volume to Mr. D.S. Kelly.

Administration

Mr. E.E. Miller, our respected Principal has played an important roll in helping us achieve our goal, which seemed so far ahead our first year at E.E. Smith. To Him we wish to express our sincere appreciation for all he has done for us.

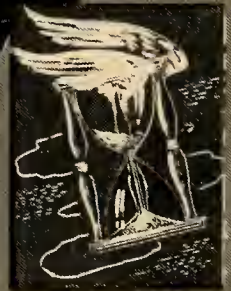

Mrs. Johnson, the Secretary of our plant, has helped us in many ways in establishing a firm foundation in leadership and character. Many thanks to her and best wishes for the years to come.

Miss C.L. Thompson, our Guidance Counselor, has given each of us a broad outlook on life which will enable us to cope with the struggle of future years. To her we all wish to express our sincere thanks.

Class History

In the fall of the year nineteen hundred and fifty two a stately ship anchored on the shore of the E.E. Smith High School. This ship bore passengers whose minds were filled with anticipation, whose experiences did not include any participation what so ever in any phase of high school life. This was the class of fifty seven.

We entered the building as some one testing the solidity of a bridge, however upon meeting the principal, teachers, and upper classmen, we were soon made to feel safe and sure that we, too, were a part of that wonderful family.

Our first task was to familiarize ourselves with our new surroundings and to adjust to schedules and rules. Having done this we plunged whole heartedly into all phases of Curricular and extra Curricular Activities. Our Class was represented in the Glee Club, on the Football Team, Basketball Team, in the Red Cross, Band, and Student Council. A number of us made the honor roll the first six weeks. One of the highlights of our freshman year was the crowning of a freshman May Queen. Our first year was truly an exciting and successful one.

After completing successfully our freshmen year we moved further inland, took up heavier responsibilities and took our places as sophomores. Along with adjusting to our new status we were to be a part of another vast change. We entered a new Senior High School which we thought was the very best. Among our new objectives was keeping our school neat, clean and attractive. On finding that our work had become more complicated than the year before we buckled down with greater efforts so that we could continue doing well in our studies and activities.

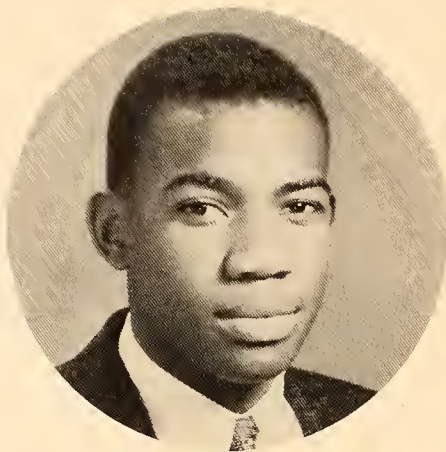

The day finally came when we were classified as Juniors. In contrast to the years before our participation in activities greatly increased. We were represented in all phases of activities, Student Council, National Honor Society, Football Team, Basketball Team, Band, Glee Club, Dramatic Club and the Charm Club.

The spring of our Junior year found us preparing for what we thought was the most important event of our lives, the Junior and Senior Prom. We were not only entertaining the seniors but we were enjoying ourselves.

Class Song

(Tune: Walk Hand In Hand)

We'll always remember you
Dear Smith High School so true
Your standards we'll uphold
To reach our goal,

Dear Smith we came to thee
Seeking our destiny,
What will our future be
Guided by you,

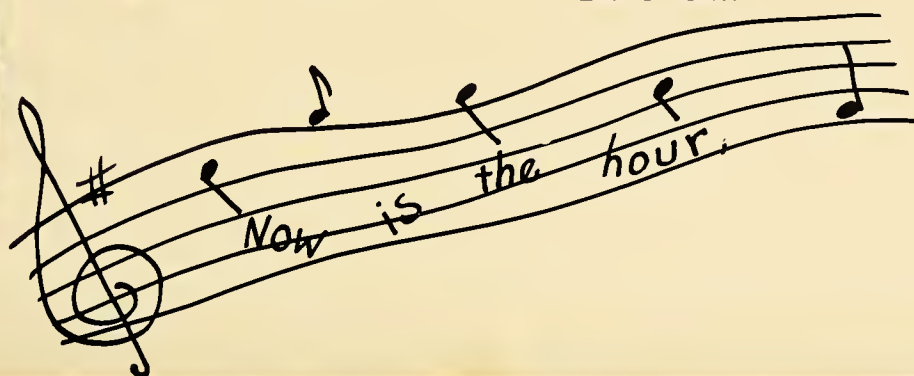

We aren't afraid,
For you'll be with us
All the while.
We'll lift our aims up high
And they will never die.

The hour is here at last
The time has come to pass
We hate to say good-bye,
But we must go,
We must go.

Barbara Currie
Juanita Royall

Class Motto

In front of us lies a hill. Let us climb.

"Class Poem"

As the hour draws near when we must part,
We reminisce. We dream anew;
We live again our high school days,
We build foundations, firm and true.

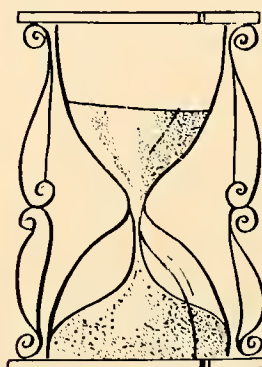

Four years ago our paths unknown,
We came to you Smith High.
We stayed with you until today,
We leave you with a sigh.

The hour has come. We pause and thank,
Our moms and dads who've done their part;
They loved, inspired and guided us,
And gave us our first start.

Our principal gave a helping hand,
Our teachers did their best
To set the standard and pave the way,
For knowledge and success.

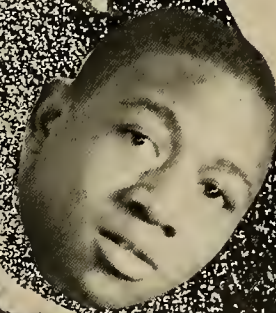

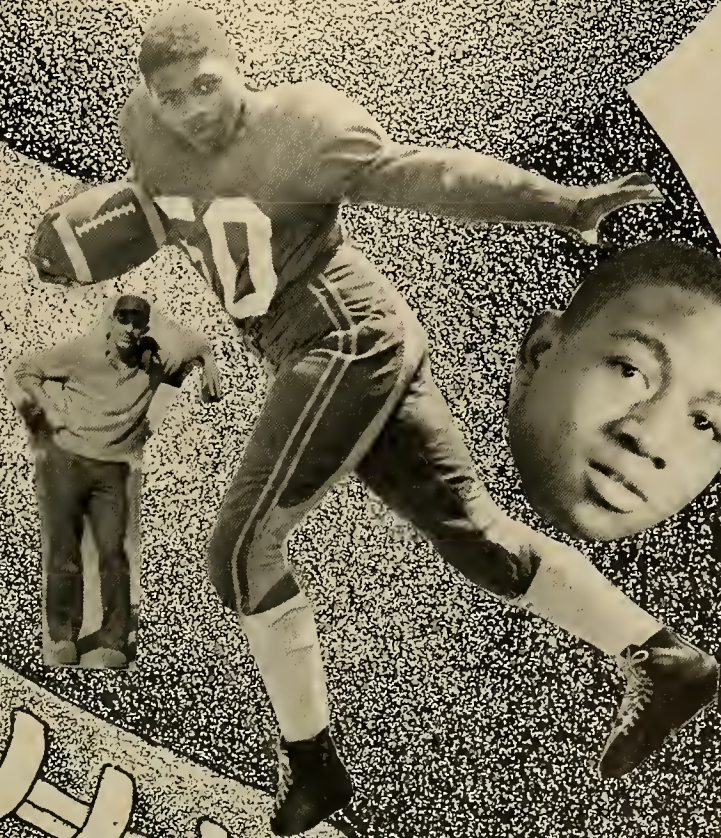

The hour has come when we resolve,
To follow our ideals,
And through our efforts and our deeds,
High Character reveal.

Last Will And Testament

We the members of E.E. Smith Senior High School, the class of 1957, in the city of Fayetteville, in Cumberland County, being in sound and perfect mind and memory, do make and publish this our last will and testament in manner and form, (that is to joy) on the fifth day of June, the one thousand nine hundred fifty seventh year.

We, the graduating class of 1957 bequeath to the following:

To the principal and faculty we bequeath our pleasant memories of our four years and our sincere gratitude.

To the juniors, we leave our grace and dignity.

To the sophomores, we leave our ambition.

To the unsophisticated freshmen, we leave our accomplished knowledge.

To the undergraduates we bequeath the following individual possessions.

Edna MacRae wills her ability to stay on the honor roll to Carolyn MacRae.

Angela Ingram wills her head majorette position to Barbara Alexander.

Barbara Massey wills her grace and dignity to Fannie Leach.

Patricia Hargrove wills her ability to play solo clarinet to Nathaniel Richardson.

Joe Ann Fuller wills her hair style to Harriet Johnson.

Dorothy Usher wills her Home Economics ability to Eloise Usher.

Charlie Fowler wills his football muscles to Robert Drake.

Gwendolyn Randall wills her sense of humor to Joan Ingram.

Richard Sheridan wills his athletic powers to Charlie Sheridan.

Eddie Hughes wills his business-like manner to William Murphy.

Juanita Royall wills her personality to Barbara Dixon.

Mary Monroe wills her lady-like manner to Joan McMillan.

Inez McEachern wills her neatness to Claraline McNeil.

Barbara Tate wills her artistic ability to Lynnevar Parker.

Clinton McGeachy wills his drumming ability to Lexia Campbell.

Geraldine Tyndall wills her singing ability to Hermine Jones.

William Thigpen wills his handsome face to Rodman Lawson.

Marian Simmons wills her typing ability to Delores Melvin.

Barbara Currie wills her job in the Library to Ruth Taylor.

Cecelia Donnell wills her ability to have fun, no matter what, to Ole Brown.

Elijah McMillan wills his dressing ability to Douglass McMillan.

Mary Bowden wills her friendliness to Delores Morrison.

John McPherson wills his frankness to Willie Dukes.

FOOTBALL 1956

The record of three wins, five losses, and one tie, does not tell the story of the determination of the Bulls.

The Bulls started slowly, but steadily improved as the season grew older. After the Bulls started rolling they set somewhat of a record by scoring 96 points in two games. As far as the records show the highest for two games was 84 points.

Another factor against the Bulls was that they lacked the use of a home field, because the Bull's field was incomplete during the 1956 season. So all the games were played on a foreign field.

The Bull's forward wall was lead by Richard Sheridan, Charlie Fowler, McKenall and John McPherson.

The Backfield was lead by All-Shrine Bowl Half-back, Odell Gilmore; also running in the backfield for the Bulls and carrying some of the load were lettermen, Benjamin Cole, and William Thigpen.

BASKETBALL 1956-57

The Bulls finished the 1956-57 season with 13 wins and 6 losses. Our victories were over some of the best teams in the State.

Among the Seniors on the Varsity were Richard Sheridan, Benjamin Cole, Leonard Jones. Leonard Jones was the high-scorer among the Seniors, collecting 230 points, followed by Richard Sheridan with 104 points, and Benjamin Cole with 72.

The Bulls collected 1,204 points for 19 games against only 959 for their opponents. The Bulls are looking forward to an even better season next year.

The Baby Bulls, coached by Mr. D.T. Carter had a record of 16 and 2, for the 56-57 season.

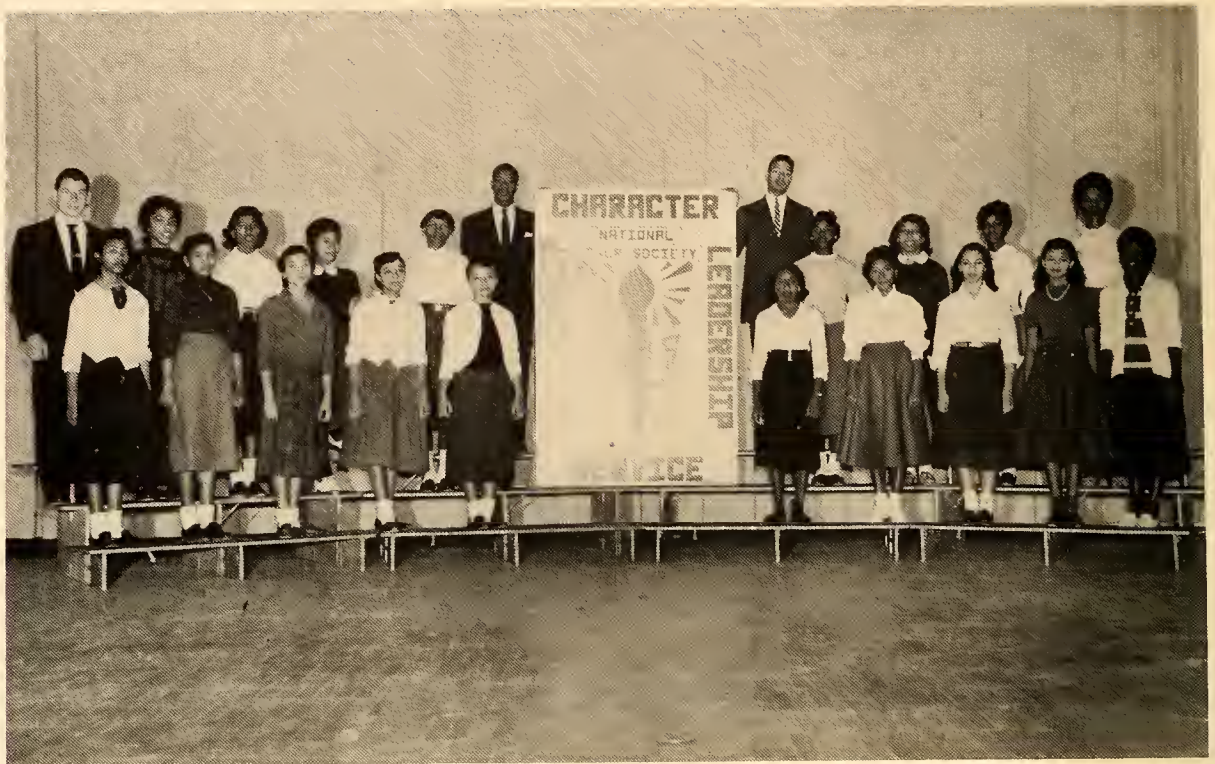

The Big Bulls were coached by Mr. D.S. Kelly.

BASEBALL 1957

The arrival of the Baseball season finds the Bulls being led by five lettermen. Outfielders, Clinton McGeachy, Charlie Fowler, Carl Bullock, third-baseman, Benjamin Cole and pitcher, Richard Sheridan. Clinton McGeachy .425, Ben Cole .375, and Charlie Fowler .250, were top batters for the Bulls. Top pitcher was Richard Sheridan with a high school record of 7 wins and 3 losses, and 85 strike outs.

Class Prophecy

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. This is your announcer, Eddie Hughes. We are broadcasting from the Miller Opera Hall in Fayetteville, North Carolina. The year is 1977 and Maestro Barbara Massey, the first woman conductor, is going to conduct the Overture to the Opera, "La Smithsonian." This is a particularly special program because the pianist, Marian Simmons; the star violinist, Evangeline Sutton; the bass fiddler, Leroy Butler; and the soloist, Geraldine Tyndall were once high school classmates.

The hall itself was designed by the renowned architect, James Benton, and the spacious interior by Ardis Newton, the celebrated designer and decorator of many homes on the east coast.

Someone inquired about the murals decorating the walls of the hall. We are told that the art team headed by Miss Barbara Tate is responsible.

As we enter the main auditorium, our attention turns immediately to the exquisite grooming of the ladies and gentlemen serving as ushers. The costumes were tailored by the noted tailor, Vonne Hair and the fine coiffeurs are accredited to the Howard-Davis beauty salon operated by Georgia Fuller and Katherine Thompson.

The orchestra is tuning up now, but let us turn the spotlight on the celebrities here tonight. Up in the one hundred-dollar seats is Miss Patricia Hargrove, a research sociologist in New York City escorted by the robust pitcher for the Yankees, Mr. Richard Sheridan. In the next box are four of Miss Hargrove's colleagues, Misses Juanita Royall, Stella Lockhart, Gwendolyn Randall and Emma Jean McMillian.

Here comes the distinguished surgeon, Ralph Stephens with his head nurse, Miss Inez McEachern. I might say at this point that the McEtienne Hospital of which Dr. Stephens is head surgeon has on its competent staff the following persons: osteopathic physician, Calvin McDonald; chief laboratory technician, Shirley Combest; occupational therapists, Jocelyn Gerald and Margaret Walker; registered nurses, Magdelene Elliott, Angela Ingram, Esther Burton, Lois Lee, and Dessa Morrison; pediatrical nurses, Barbara Currie and Gloria McNeil; and hospital nutritionists, Yvonne McMillian and Mattie Baker.

In the balcony we see the Tumbling Champ Gymnast Team: Benjamin Cole, Clinton McGeachy, Josephine Brown, Leonard Jones, Tony McMillian, and Joe Ann Fuller. We are informed that this team was formed in high school from a common interest in physical education.

Coming in now, ladies and gentlemen, is that celebrated "Wall Street Hound," Edward Galbreath. With him is his private secretary. We understand that Misses Mary Monroe, Nancy Smith, and Yvonne Hair have secured stenographic positions in the same building as Miss Murchison.

Class Prophecy

We believe--yes, in the left wing is Mr. George McNeil, that reputed aeronautical engineer. We miss his colleagues, Mr. John McPherson and Mr. Carl Bullock. We do see Mr. McKensdale Pompey, noted electrical engineer, though.

Making it a foursome tonight we see Misses Cecelia Donnell, Alma Hooks, Ethel Gaddie, and Grace Ivory, seated in the right wing. They are all elementary school teachers in Philadelphia. In the secondary school system are two other classmates, Miss Edna MacRae, instructor of Mathematics and Home Economics instructor, Miss Dorothy Usher.

We can imagine that by now you are wondering why the presence of so many persons is being acknowledged. We inform you that tonight marks the twentieth annual reunion of the Class of 1957 from the E.E. Smith Senior High School.

Much to our regret, some of our classmates are not with us tonight. We have learned that Dr. Elijah McMillian is attending a session of the National Dentist Association's annual convention in Chicago. Miss Bertha Townsend is also there attending a beautician's meeting.

Serving in official capacities at various military posts around the country are Adam Spears, Richard Smith, Mayso Monroe, Arthur Peterson, Judge Kemp, Timothy Brewington, Earl McNeil, and Jimmy Blue.

We have received wires for this occasion from classmates Ida Hennigan, Irene McKinnon, Shirley McNeil, Arnetha Pridgen, Mary Bowden, Corina Williams, and Elizabeth Fuller who are traveling abroad and tonight are having somewhat of a reunion of their own since they could not be here with us.

Yes, the telegrams are constantly pouring in. We hope there is time to acknowledge all of them. From Detroit comes this one from Odell Gilmore and Sarah Oliver. Mr. Gilmore plays with the Detroit Tigers. Miss Oliver is superintendent of nurses at Detroit General Hospital.

Here's a cablegram. It is from Charlie Fowler, Thurl Isley, Louise Young and Alma McCoy. The two young ladies accompanied the gentlemen on a business trip to South Africa for the National Petrol Refining Company.

This wire is from Mr. Francis Rose. After serving for several years in the Armed Forces, he is conducting a school of barbering.

And now, ladies and gentlemen, the houselights are dimming, the conductor is taking the podium. This is truly a night to remember. We hope you will enjoy the opera, "La Smithsonian."
